

Declaration to the food grade of the material PU – G/2

Transportbänder · Conveyor belts · Bandes transporteuses

Compiled by:	Approved by Management:	Version:	Date:	Replaced:
B. Kallsen	W. Polnikow	04	26.10.2009	03

2002/72/EG:

According to the information of the raw material supplier the coating of this material complies with the European plastics individual directive 2002/72EG of 06. August 2002.

FDA:

According to the information of the raw material supplier he products hereafter certified comply in their chemical composition with the positive list of the FDA.

CFR 21:

§ 177.2600 Title: Rubber articles intended for repeated use

According to the FDA standard there must be no remains of dissolvents or foreign substances which were possibly added during the processing, may not be detected, respectively.

1935/2004/EG:

According to the information of the raw material supplier the coating of the material complies with the European framework directive 1935/2004 of 27. October 2004.

Märtens Transportbänder GmbH & Co. KG

Wolfgang Polnikow
Managing Director

These statements comply with the status quo of our conclusions. We hand them over without binding and cannot assume liability for the accuracy. The statements are to inform and to give advice, but they don't constitute any guarantee. The customer is not exempt from a careful verification of the functions and applications by qualified personnel. This applies also regarding the protection of any property rights of a third party. Modifications within the scope of technical progress and operative developments are reserved. With these statements earlier statements become invalid.